2 | FROM THE DIRECTOR, DEBRA GALLOWAY

Welcome to October!

October at the Sudbury Senior Center includes some interesting, useful and fun events! Please sign up early for Balance Assessments! You can also sign up to learn about ChatGPT and Social Media from Senior U; learn how to use your iPhone for Uber and Lyft, as well as Digital Libraries, with KevTech; and experience a day in the life of Sudbury's Health Director, Vivian Zeng. Finally, join us for a Fall Fest where you can delight in apple cider donuts, apple cider, and all kinds of other tricks and treats!

We continue to add programs, classes and special events to our calendar as we become more settled into the new Senior Center. We haven't been able to plan as many as we'd like due to long-term staff shortages. However, as you'll see on page 3, we welcomed our new Program & Publicity Coordinator Palig Garabedian in August. She is learning new software, and is working on editing her first monthly newsletter. Palig will be available to meet you on Friday, October 11 from 9:30-10:30 AM in the Café - please stop by to say hello!

As of the printing of the newsletter, we have not hired an Asst. Director/Outreach Coordinator, and are also looking for a part-time Front Desk receptionist. We are hopeful new applicants are just around the corner, and we will fill these positions soon. In the meantime, please understand that at times we may be slower to get back to you than we would like.

Some changes to note:

Fitness Registration now takes place for 2 weeks before the next fitness session runs, and payments are due on the last day of registration (Friday, November 1). See page 6.

To make the newsletter calendar more legible, some weekly events are now listed separately on page 13 and are not included on the calendar. We hope this will improve readability, but don't want you to worry that your favorite weekly program is cancelled. As always, please call or email if you have a question at 978-443-3055 or senior@sudbury.ma.us.

THE GREAT COURSES DVD SERIES

30 Masterpieces of the Ancient WorldOn Zoom Starting October 7*Day: Mondays*Time: 10:00 - 11:00 AM

When people think of the masterpieces of art, painters such as Gauguin or Picasso might spring to mind. However, thousands of years before these modern masters put brush to canvas, artists from all over the ancient world, from France to Egypt to South America, created a trove of masterpieces—artwork stunning for its opulence, its realism, its utility, and its visual drama.

Mahler: His Life and MusicOn Zoom Starting October 1*Day: Tuesdays*Time: 9:30 - 10:30 AM

This course offers a biographical and musical study of Mahler, who, along with being a composer, was the greatest opera conductor of his time. Mahler was a titan of post-Romantic musical history. His symphonies are vast musical repositories of his intellectual, emotional, and spiritual expression. His work constitutes the first generation of Expressionism, the early 20th-century art movement that celebrates inner reality as the only reality.

A History of Eastern Europe withProfessor Vejas Gabriel*On Zoom Starting October 2*Day: Wednesdays*Time: 9:30 - 11:00 AM

In this class, we explore Eastern Europe. Long thought of the “Other Europe”, the region is rife with political upheaval, shifting national borders, an astonishing variety of ethnic diversity and relative isolation. This course examines the region’s gradual integration with Western Europe by joining NATO and the European Union and its gain of a new measure of self-determination in the wake of communist collapse.

Welcome to our new Program & Publicity Coordinator!

We are pleased to introduce our new Program & Publicity Coordinator Palig Garabedian.

Palig started work in August, and spent some time training with our fantastic, but now retired, Program Coordinator Sharon Wilkes. Palig is well immersed in planning and publicity now as we begin September (at the time of this writing) and looking forward to meeting you at the Senior Center. Please stop by the center on Friday, Oct 11th from 9:30-10:30am to enjoy a cup of coffee and to meet her.

Book Talk: My Father's War by Helaine Cohen

Monday, October 7

Time: 2:00– 3:00 PM

My Father's War provides a deep and profound look into the life of Roland Hartman's extraordinary experiences as an American soldier and POW during World War II. Crossing the flooded Sauer River into Germany's impregnable Siegfried Line was a daring feat that cost the lives of many. Still, Roland emerged as a survivor, considering the operation an unnecessary sacrifice by General George Patton.

Inspired by Roland's stories and writings, the book paints a vivid picture of the front lines, facing enemy fire and swollen rivers, and the camaraderie of military units. It delves into the broader war effort, examining the reasons behind this dangerous mission and its impact on the Allied front.

Helaine Hartman Cohen of Wayland, MA recently published her first book, My Father's War: Finding Meaning in My Father's World War II Military Service. After retiring as a CPA, she spent years researching and writing about her father's World War II.

Please register by calling the Sudbury Senior Center at 978/443-3055 or via email at senior@sudbury.ma.us.
